We are tenting
Today
On our "Teen-age"
Proving ground,
Training for our One World
Of tomorrow.

Our student government
Is our "Field Manual,"
The school constitution
Our compass.

By it
We learn
To work
To play
To achieve
To prepare
For our adult challenge
Of tomorrow.

For tomorrow with its Exciting,
Unconquered,
Unpioneered,
Camps and bivouacs;
Its stratosphere,
Its dreams unsolved,
Its atom-shattered
Scientific secrets;
Its human cries
For social adjustment
Will be our challenge.

Let us
Keep faith
So that
We may,
At the call for reveille,
Meet our adult One World
Of tomorrow.

—George N. Green

. . . this book, with its passages of school memories, to the man who is responsible for making our school life one to be remembered—to the man who is the unseen guiding hand of student democracy; the man who doesn't believe in the "impossible;" the man who symbolizes the success of hard work; the man who could well be called Poky Hi's ambassador of good will; the man who is our superintendent, George N. Green. Since he believes in us, we hope we shall not disappoint him in the way we meet our adult challenge of tomorrow.

Foreword

We, the members of your Pocatellian staff, in order to present you with a faithful record of your school year, 1948 and 1949, have compiled this yearbook, using as its theme that all-important phase of life at Poky High, student government.

To bring out the spirit of our school democracy, our artist has created a town-crier, who peers and appears into our busy life. Walk with him through these past months and enjoy the memories you find, together.

Remember in your future life the teachings you have learned here. Your yearbook is your record of all that high school has held in store for you. Keep it and enjoy it to its fullest advantage.

Dear Doris,
Roses are red
Violets are blue
I think you're sweet,
and others do too.

Dear Doris,
The best of luck always to a real nice girl, and a fine neighbor. See you in Church.

Sixth Row—Jay Bybee, Devoe Brown, Francis King, Reed Jensen. Seventh Row—Gaylord Hudson, Toby Davis.

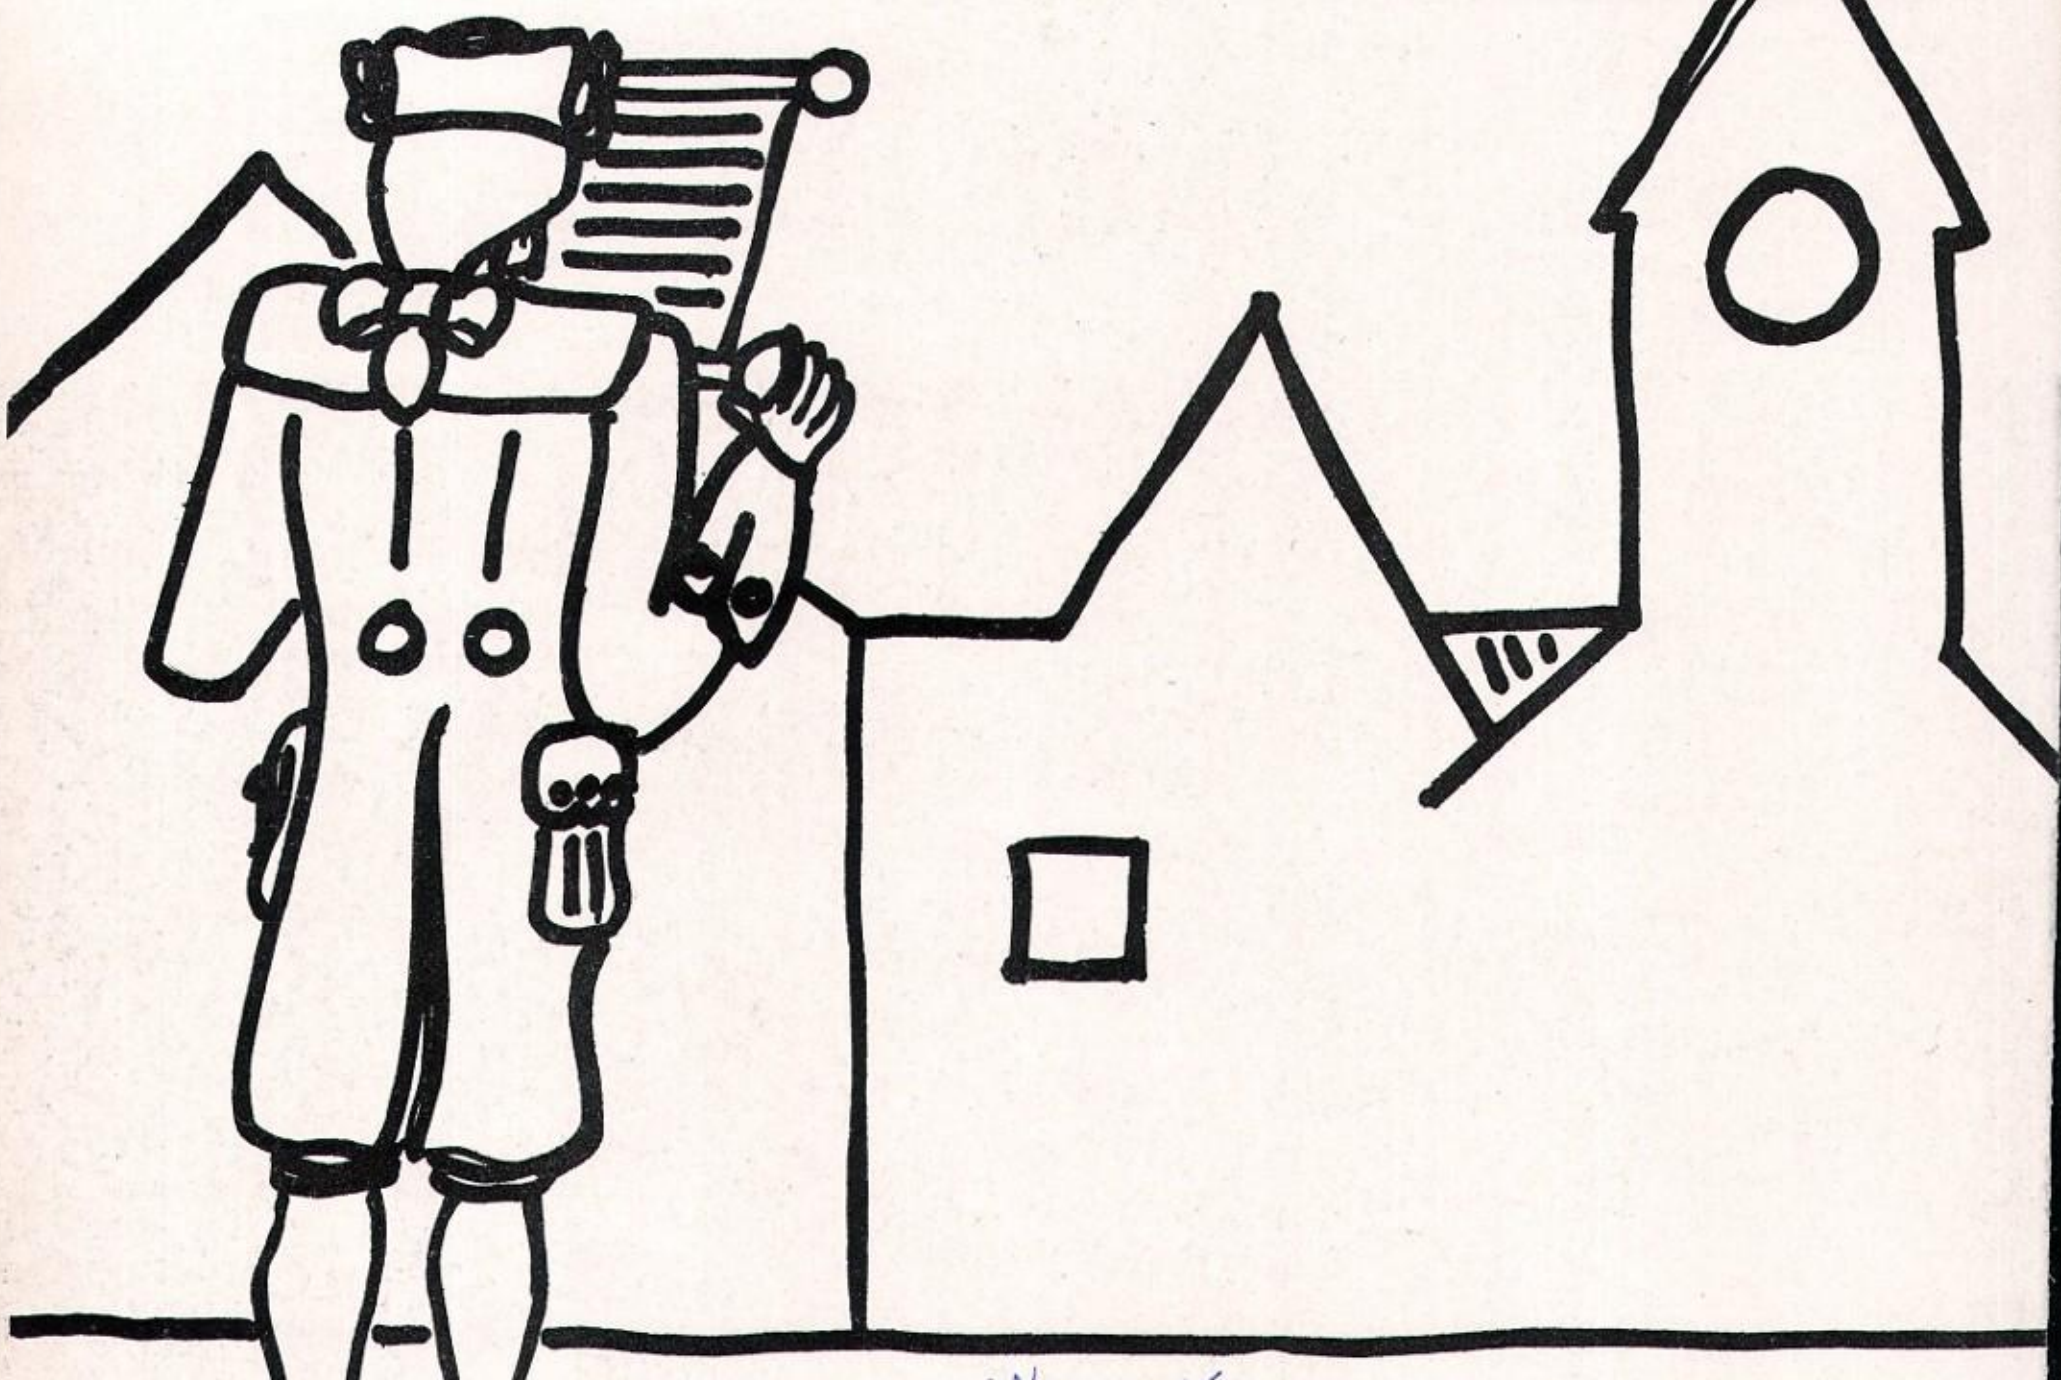
The senior senators, Harold Horrocks, Harold Paige, and Cecil Ames seem amused at what Phylis Pack is typing.

Nothing like a shining trophy case to end the basketball season.

Our Student Government

Miss Hoffman shows Errol Jacobsen, Bob Dykman, Neil Parkin, and Ronald Semmons a new addition to the historical collection.

Under the watchful eye of Mr. Ellis, Dorothy Borton performs the yearly ritual of painting names on a table in the government room.



Dear Rollie,
I wish you
lots of luck in everything you do throughout your life. I hope to see more of you.
Love,
Lisa Payne

At the beginning of the year, a comparatively green staff and two new advisers walked rather uncertainly into the Pocatellian room and began to work. Now months later, the same staff and the same advisers walk out of the Pocatellian office, a bit grayer, a bit wiser, and a bit more confident.

Things began popping early when Miss Madeline Thompson resigned after twenty years of service on the annual, and introduced Miss Bartells and Miss Phelps into the art of yearbook making. Together with the rest of the staff, they plunged into the hundreds of layouts and pictures. The scene became one of near pandemonium on the day of a deadline, when busy brains and smelly glue took the spotlight.

The business staff, guided by Mrs. Amy Berrett, were equally as busy, as the editorial staff. Their problems consisted of selling ads and keeping the books straight.

We on the staff worked hard and long to put out an annual for the student. We griped—and loved every minute of it! Each page of this 1949 Pocatellian holds a special memory for us. We hope you, the students, will look at it often and find a quiet pleasure in remembring the days when . . . .

The Chieftain has been published more frequently this year, one issue reaching the students every three weeks; a great change from the monthly issues of latter years.

The editors and staff members have been turning out a better paper than ever before; striving with each issue to improve. This work of the students is shown as the Chieftain again won first rating in Columbia Scholastic Press Association's yearly school paper contest.

For the reason that our school paper goes to each student and into each home, the staff has tried to give a true impression of the school in all aspects—the serious and carefree; the busy and happy.

Under the direction of the journalism adviser, Mrs. Izetta Robertson, a new plan was tried whereby two editors were appointed, one to serve each semester. Claire McQuillan served as editor first semester and Joan Getty, second.

Credit should be given to two students who've taken four semesters of journalism—Claudine Morris and Richard Hronek. The former has served as advertising manager for three semesters; the latter, as sports editor for three semesters, also.

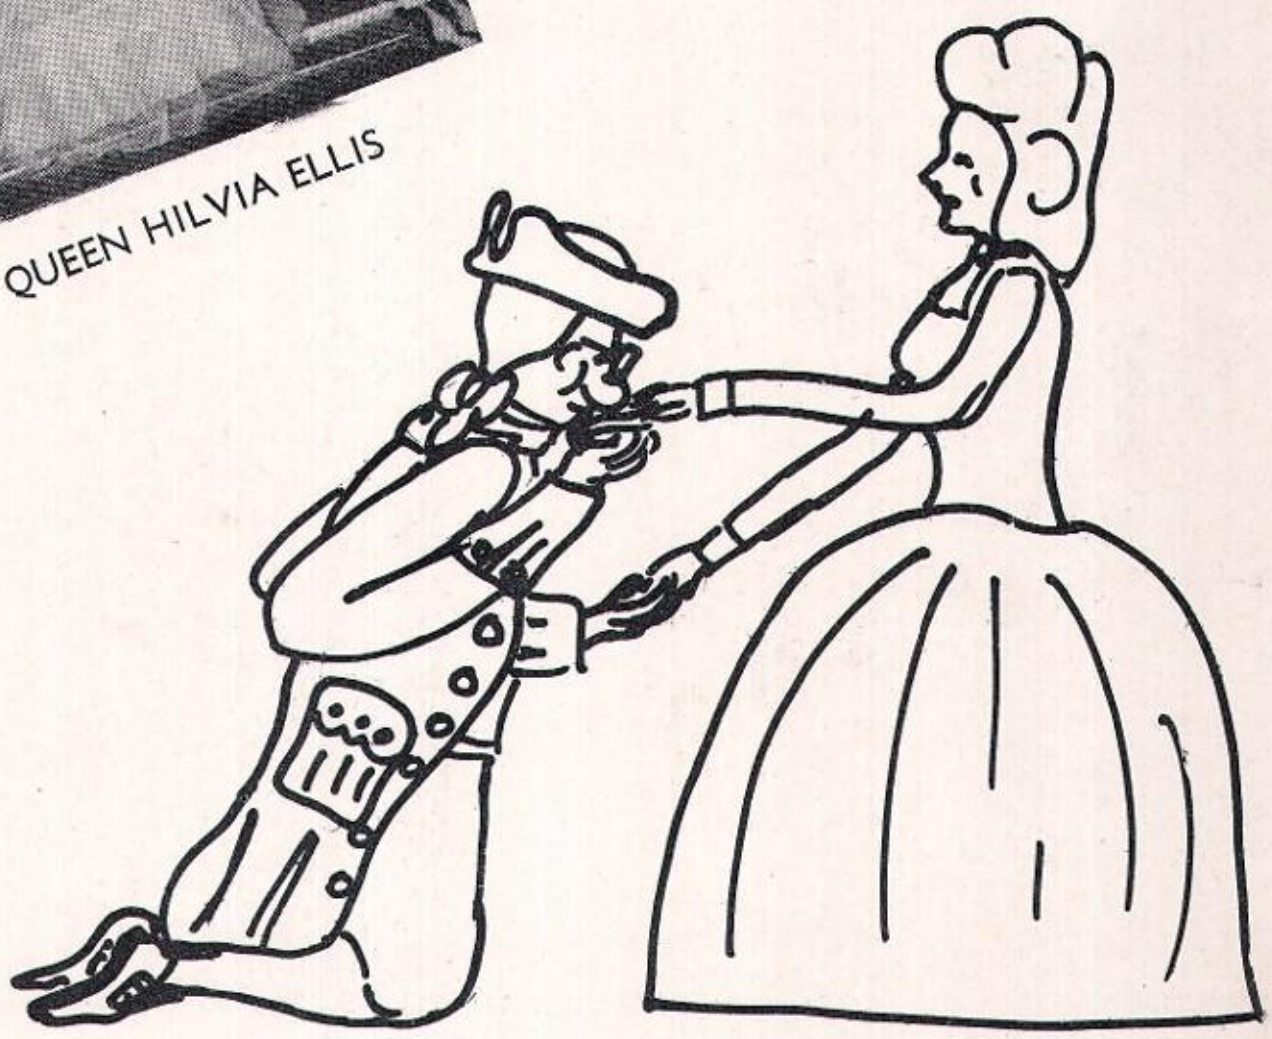
QUEEN HILVIA ELLIS



Carnival Co-ed

Confetti! Balloons! Circus Tent! Cardboard Clowns! In this gay atmosphere the annual dance of the Girls' Council was held. This year the Council introduced a truly new and unique idea. Instead of the usual queen, a king and four princes were chosen to reign over the gala affair. Demonstrating the "go get 'em" attitude of the girls, the dance was one of the most successful of the year.

Dear Doris,
I really enjoyed being in Sociology class with you this year. I hope you have had as much fun as I have. Maybe we will be in a class together and maybe get to know each other better.

The dancers congregate underneath the 'big tent.'

Ralpheyn and Joanne Kihara put the finishing touches inside the carnival grounds.

Three of the silent members of a play production pause for a minute in front of some new scenery. They are Toby Davis, stage manager; Tom Beebe, and Dean Nielson.

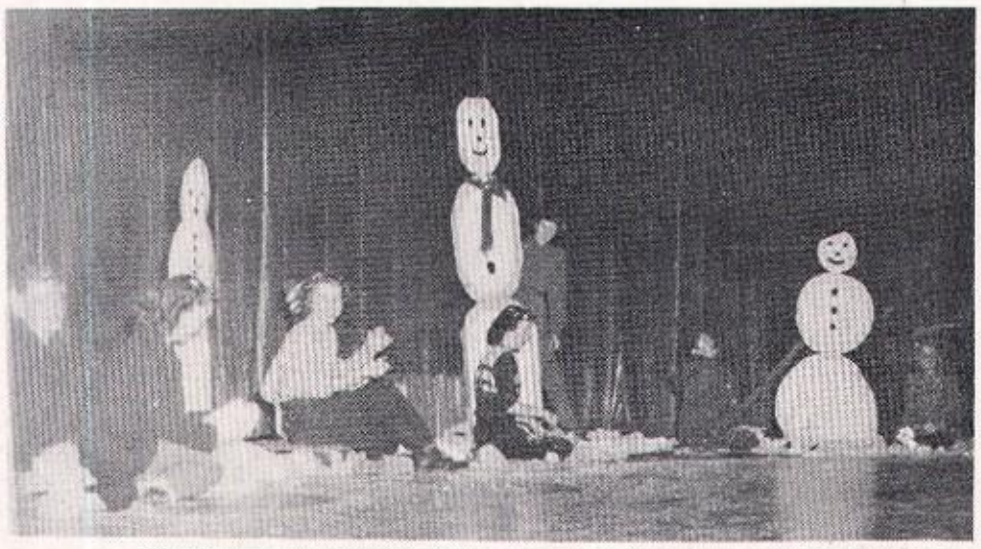
This looks more like "Waltz Me Around Again, Willie" than the rough and tumble boxing match on the GAA assembly.

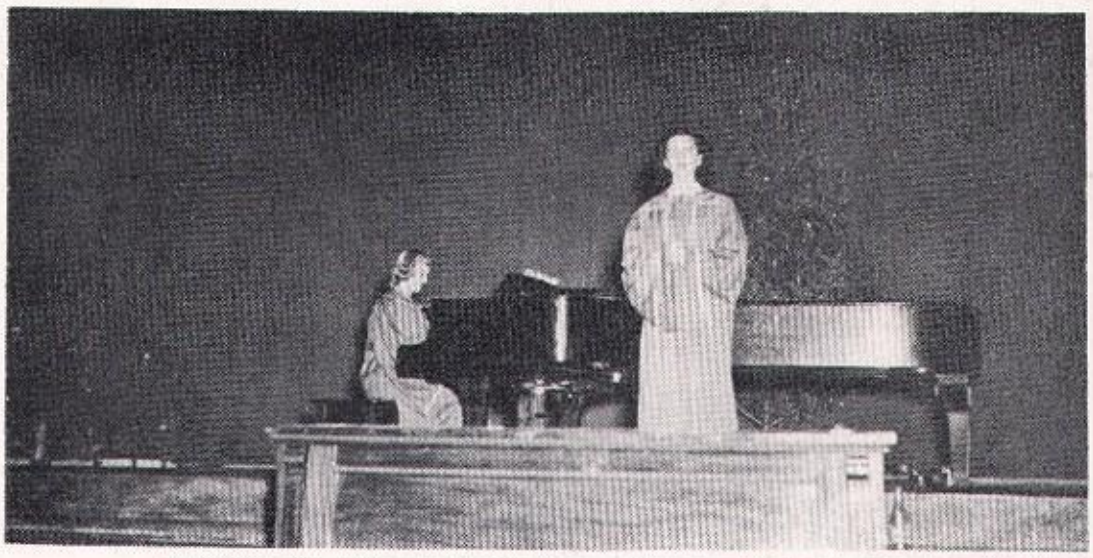
Maxine Kelly does a fast tap in Indian costume on the Frosh show.

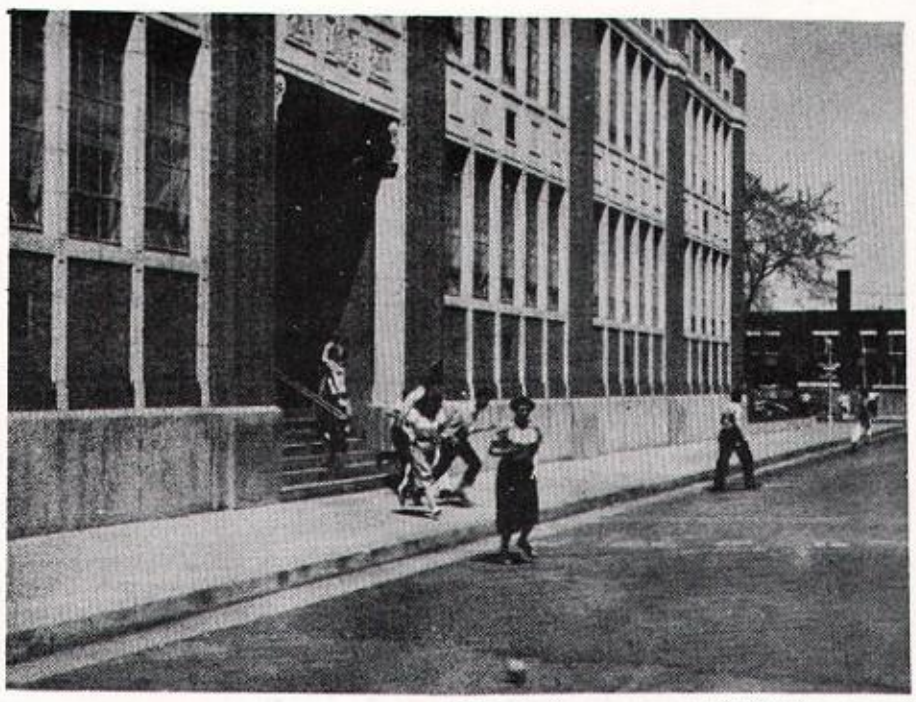
Complete with snowmen and all the trimmings is the Soph assembly.

Joan Sebesta sings a beautiful selection for the colorful Christmas pageant.

"In a Harem" is the theme for a part of the "Junior Follies of 1949." Lucky Roger Kerr is the maharaja.







Look out, pedestrians! The cafeteria rush is on!

This group of sophomore girls, Joan Sebesta, Joyce Snyder, Barbara Beebe, Wyone Wheeler, and Lula Pearl Wellard, stop for a chat after lunch.

Giving Toby some pointers on lighting is Joe Olive, head custodian of the auditorium.

Chief Pocatello, presented to the school by the Autrey brothers, keeps watch over things.

In the beginning of the year, students active in the Red Cross in our school sent over fifty-two gift boxes overseas. Since then, these student representatives have been doing other innumerable services quietly and efficiently. Under the leadership of Ed Brennan, chairman, and Mrs. Mercer, adviser, the whole organization had a busy, but successful year. Poky High can well be proud of them.

Shown with some of the gift boxes they later sent overseas are Ed Brennan, Mrs. Mercer, Hazel Jones, Hugh Templeton, and Helen Davis.

Representatives from various homerooms are LaNay Flint, Coralyn Copening, Jerry Pugmire, Lola Dye, DeEtta Perkins, Catherine Bybee, Joyce Humeric, Harriet Karas, Tats Yamamato, Kendall Strope, Larry Whitlow, Jerry Denkers.

The Red Cross officers are Colleen Mooney, secretary; Ed Brennan, president; Mrs. Mercer, adviser; and Dwinna Bennett, vice-president.

Ed Brennan, chairman of the Red Cross, autographs a record album for the club.

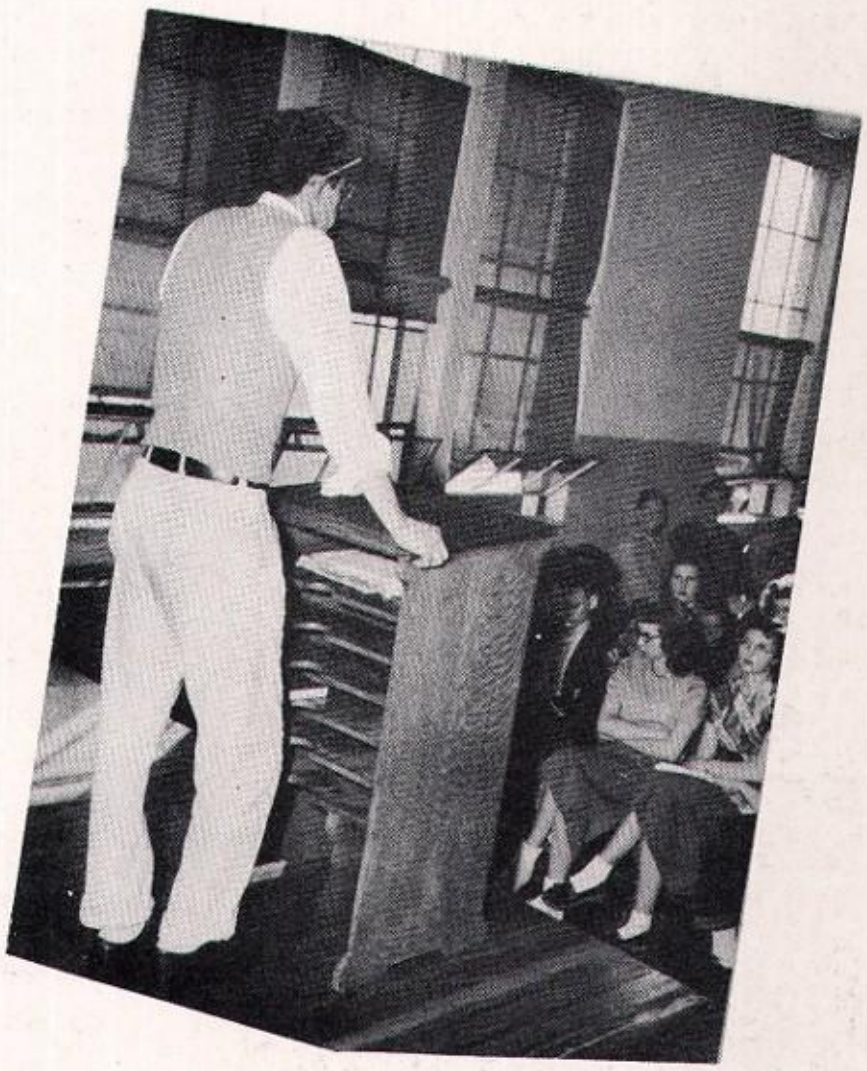
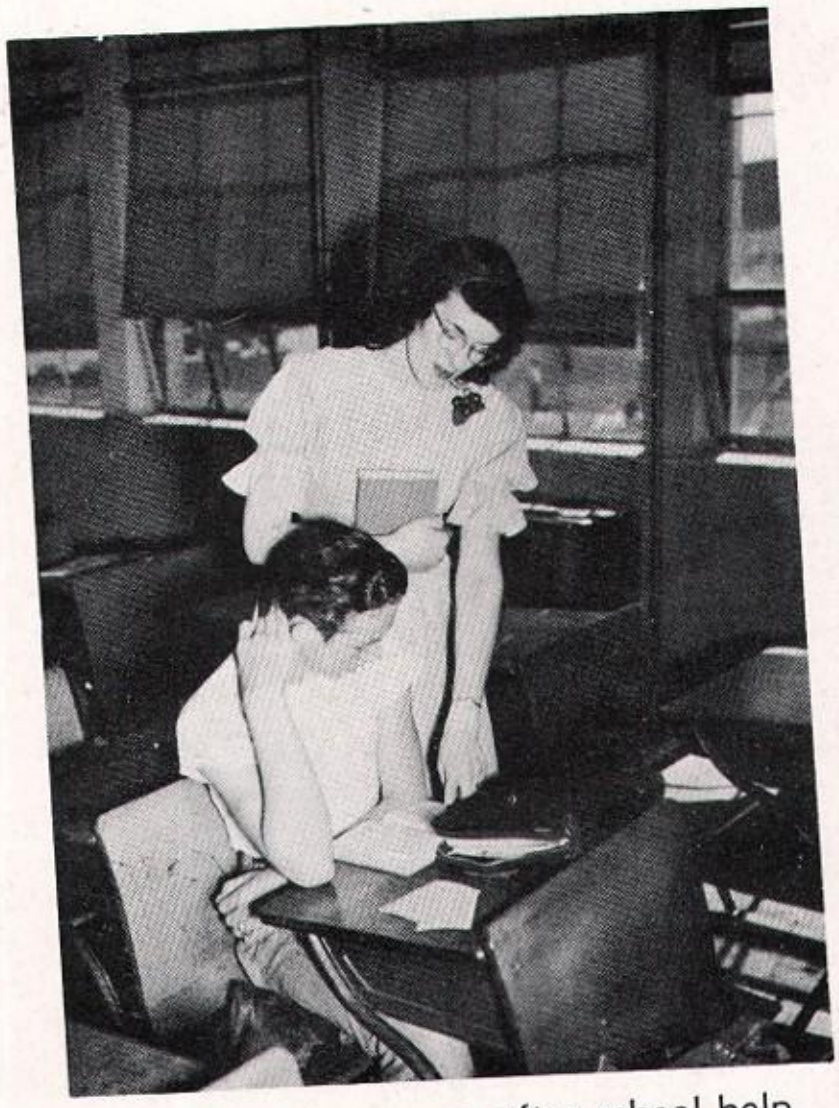
It's a "happy birthday" for members of the Girls' Council as they celebrate twenty-five successful years Those waiting for the cake to be cut are Ralpheyn Kearsley, Virginia Kelly, Jeanine Barrow, Dorothy Borton, Bernie Eyler, Ann Oelwein, and Doris McGee.

These happy faces belong to the winners of the Elks' contest on "Why Democracy Works." They are Raymond Lish, Esther Schatz, Marian Clarke, Claire McQuillan, Dorothy Grigora, Pinkie Shimada, and Norma McLeod.



It's all over but the talking, as Ray Allen recites his senior oration for a group of students.

Bob McCarty, Tom Towers, and Francis King, the only three students at Poky High to take the Princeton College Entrance Board Test, look over the physics exam.

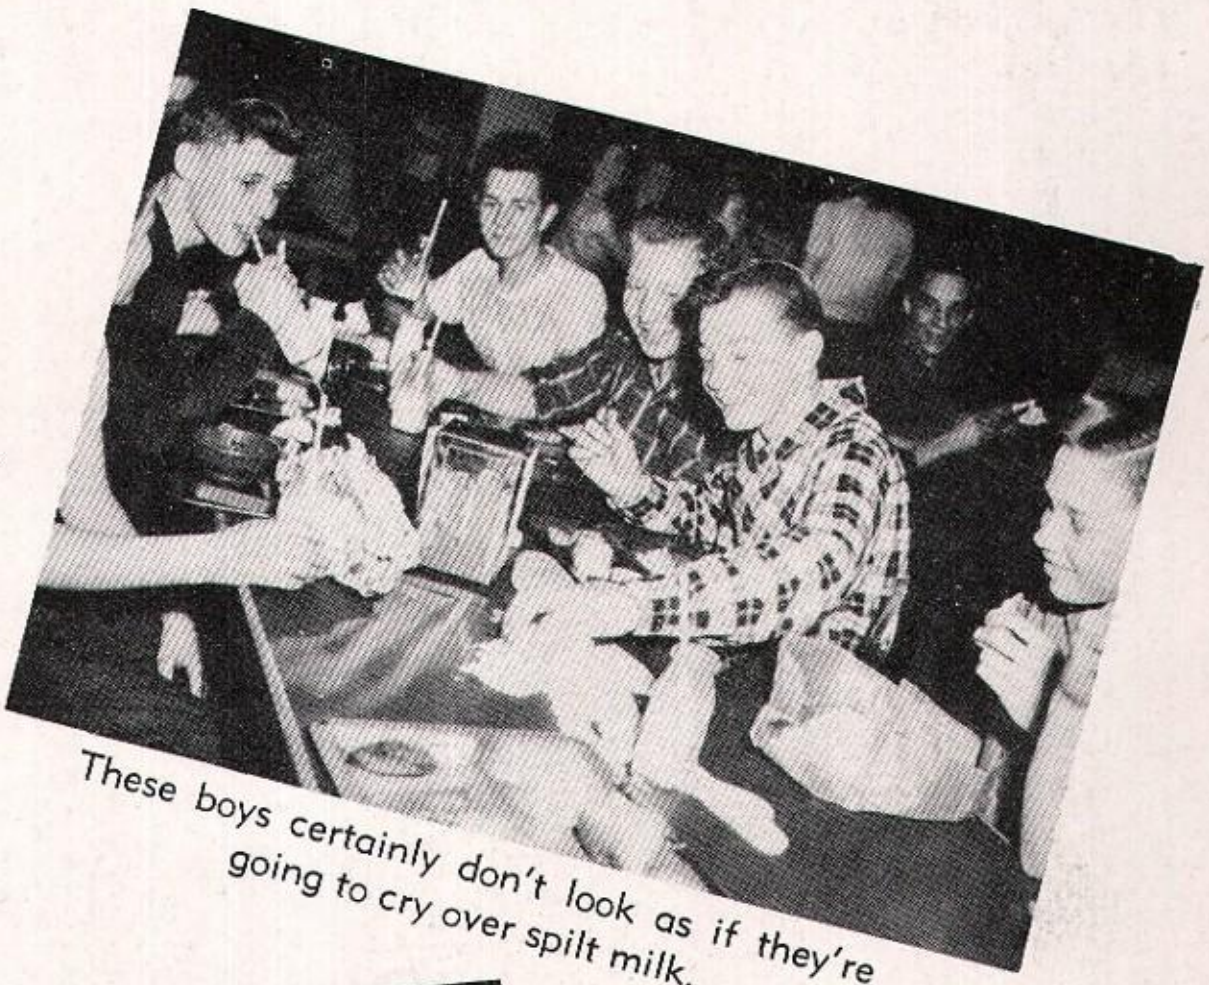


Mrs. Ellis gives some after school help to a student.

Marian Clarke doing some between class studying.

"Clean it clean, Nielson," says Bob Booker to Dean, while Berry Todd gives Booker that "you want he should lick it?" look.

Cafeteria Style



These boys certainly don't look as if they're going to cry over spilt milk.

Nothing like a coke to end a meal.

Orators

"Ten little Indians" . . . . . these ten finalists came out victorious in the American Legion oratorical contest, Rhea Hansen, Harold Paige, Janice Burton, Joyce Babcock, Francis King, Marian Clarke, Reed Jensen, Virginia Kelly, Virgil Camp, and Jerry Briggs.

"One little Indian" . . . . . Reed Jensen gives out with a big smile after having come out first in the contest.

"Three little Indians" . . . . Harold Paige, Reed Jensen, and Francis King comment over the orations that made them winners. The subject was "The Constitution — Guardian of the People's Rights."

The Frosh-Soph debaters look over some material for their next debate. They are Lawrence Gill, Myrlin Druce, Pat Lavery, and Dell Barkdull.

Making a good showing in out-of-town debate tournaments were the senior debaters, Richard Wallin, Leo Gill, Miss Frances Dotzour, adviser; Bob Walker, Chuck McDevitt, and Tom Towers.

Resolved....

Poky's debaters, under the able coaching of Miss Francis Dotzour, have participated in several important tournaments. Among these were the annual Statesman Tournament at Boise and the Blackfoot Invitational Meet, as well as the fifth district tournament held at I.S.C.

The big question this year was: Resolved: That the United Nations now be revised into a Federal World Government.

Winners of the intramural basketball tourney, held early in the season, the above group of court stars, most of whom later appeared on the varsity, gave a good accounting of themselves to emerge unbeaten from the joust. Left to right, Bob Dykeman, Bill Packer, Ralph Hall. Back, left to right, Errol Jacobsen, Neil Parkin, Bud Barry, Sam Frahm, Wesley Skidmore, Coach Chick Atkinson.

Intramural

Irish Mike O'Donnell, victor in the annual ping-pong tournament, triumphed over all his opponents in what constitutes a major blow to upper-classmen, as O'Donnell, who is a freshman, was relegated in pre-tourney predictions to the ranks of the also-rans.

Winners of the outlaw basketball tournament, the Has-Beens, displayed the fight and spirit that characterizes Poky's intramural program. Pictured above, the team consists of: left to right, front, Jim Gower, Charles McDevitt, Bob Rush, Leo Gill. Back, Jay Bybee, Tom Beebe, Bob Booker, Lloyd Ferguson, Toby Davis.

Sports

Outstanding exponents of skiing, which is rapidly growing in popularity, these boys earned Poky an admirable reputation among the followers of the winter sport. Out of the hills, which in winter constitute their principle habitat, but grinning nevertheless, they are: left to right, Bird Finlayson, Francis King, Coach Mike Mills, Tom Flint, and Doug Collins.

First row—Bird Finlayson, Bob Booker, Bob Dudley, Brent Ballif, Charles McDevitt, Vern Mitchell, LeRoy Anderson, Dale Vesser, Tom Wilson, Kline Jones, Gary Paxman, Reed Jensen, Leo Gill, Gary Gottlieb. Second row—Gary Spidell, Lloyd Ferguson, Richard Davis, DuWayne Dickson, Lorin Hancock, John Beven, Larry Hancock, Eugene Watson, Phil Jordan, Dennis Slayden, Mr. Huntsman, Harry Shimada, Glenn Burdick, Tom West, Richard Campbell, Keith Roe, Charles Pickett, Bernell Powell, Lyman Davis, Lawrence Gill. Third row—Ronald Harker, Bill Petersen, Wesley Skidmore, Harold Horrocks, Robert McCarty, Francis King, Tom Flint, Bob Rush, Heber Hanson, Ray Allen, Bert Horrocks, Richard Jensen, Dan Jones. Fourth row—Ed Brennan, Richard Preece, Dennis Dalton, Harold Paige, Bob Schneider, Mits Nakashima, Bill Ryan, Gary Howard, Gary Smith, John Romish, Roger Knowleton, Bob Beasley, Paul Ellis.

Much of the success of Boys' Council is due to Mr. Huntsman, adviser; Tom Flint, vice president; Harry Shimada, secretary; and Leo Gill, president.

Boys' Council

Proud of their position as the foremost service club in the school, Boys' Council always aims to do its work well. Ushering at school activities and checking up on absentee's are the principal jobs of this club.

Roused into activity by the photographer are Dale Vesser, "Mits" Nakashima, and Heber Hanson.

Meeting with Miss Evans, adviser of Council, are Jeanine Barrow, secretary; Dorothy Borton, vice-president; and Ralpheyn Kearsley, president. Absent from the picture is Virginia Kelly, treasurer.

Performing the daily duty of checking attendance are Virginia Rhodes, Grace Allen, Nadine Tonks, and Joan Sorenson.

Girls' Council

The oldest organization in the school, Girls' Council, has completed its twenty-fifth year of active service to Poky High. Council girls are noted for their high scholastic achievements and their willingness to help. Everyone is familiar with the cheerful faces of these busy girls who collect slips, check attendance, deliver bulletins, run errands, and perform a hundred and one other duties.

Ralpheyn Kearsley, aided by the guiding hand of Miss Evans, has very capably directed the club in its many activities this year. Among their works were a co-ed dance, an assembly, a birthday party, and the annual banquet.

First row—Marilyn Bird, Dorothy Grigora, Glenna Beck, Georgia Kortum, Jeanine Barrow, Ralpheyn Kearsley, Dorothy .Borton, Nancy Harrison, Ilene Barrett, Nadine Sternling, Sue Dele Jensen, Jerry Briggs. P Club

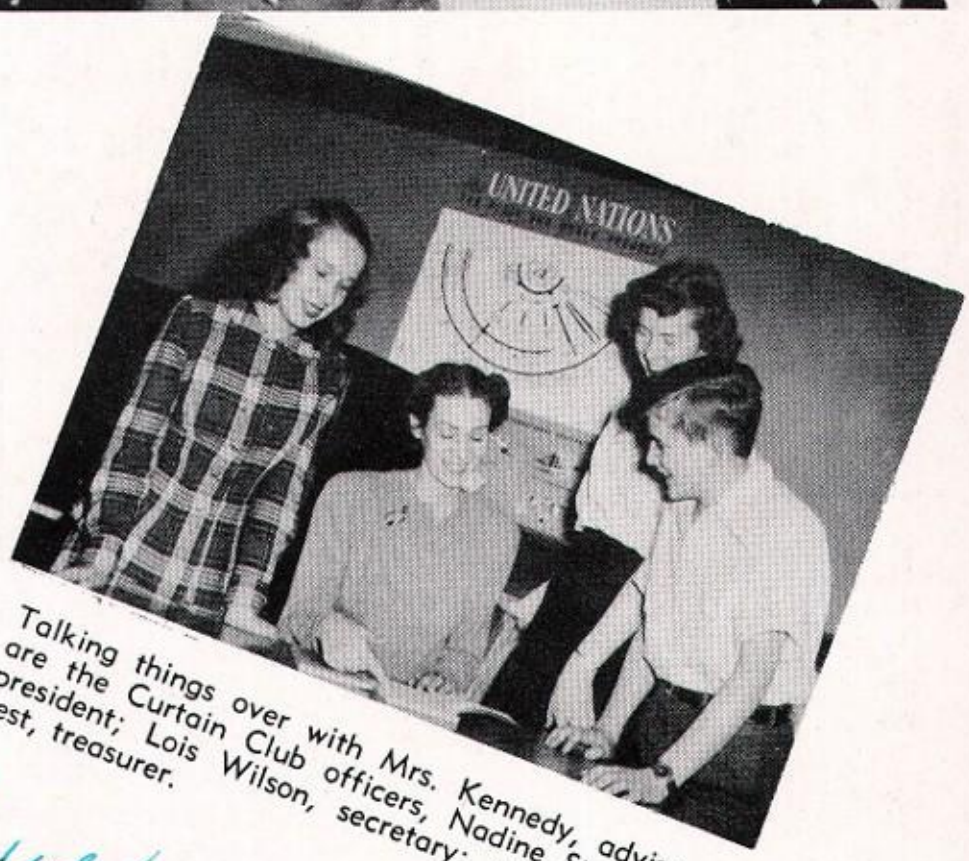
Officers of P Club are Jay Bybee, president; Roger Kerr, vice-president; Toby Davis, traffic chief; Gene Jacobsen, secretary-treasurer; Errol Jacobsen, traffic chief; and sitting is Chick Atkinson, adviser.

The goal of every athletic-minded high school boy is to be selected to membership in P Club, the letterman's organization. This group is made up of boys who have participated in a major sport. The particular job of this organization is to sell concessions at the basketball games and boxing matches.

Curtain Club



Talking things over with Mrs. Kennedy, adviser, are the Curtain Club officers, Nadine Sternling, president; Lois Wilson, secretary; and Jim Forrest, treasurer.

Dear Doris,
I've found
this year so much fun and knowing you has added to it. Best of luck in Chem - in college. You've surely done grand in it here

Fifth row—Barbara Willis, Lois Wilson, Anita Brady, Joyce Humerick, Dick Beasley, Coralyn Copening, Annette Dean.

Poky's budding actors find an outlet for their latent talents in Curtain club, the Frosh-Soph dramatic organization. The club under the advisership of that all-time trouper, Mrs. Martha Kennedy, has put on one-act plays and skits of outstanding quality throughout the year. Aside from this, the members have been delving into the more theoretical side of the theater, that is they have studied the history and structure of the drama.

Thespians

First row—Grace Ellis, Agnes Lore, Dennis Slayden, Derinda Schurtz. Second row—Francis King, Eddy Van Vleck, Norma Mc Leod, Nadine Tonks, Fred Nelson, Donna Weston.

Dear Doris,
Best wishes always.
Here's hoping you won't get stuck with council duty next year.
Norma Mc Leod

The officers of Thespians, who have led the members through another year of achievement, are Fred Nelson, vice-president; Nadine Tonks, secretary; Mrs. Whitlow, adviser; Agnes Lore, treasurer; and Norma McLeod, president.

Look out-luck to a real cute kid who will really go places.

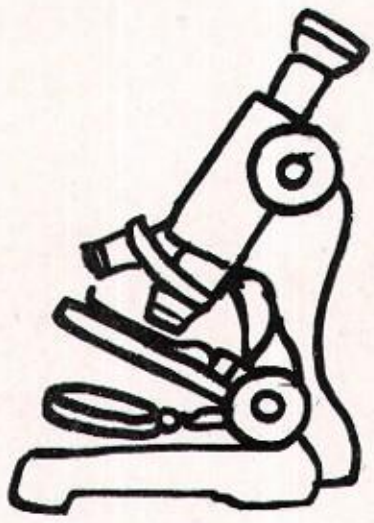
Science and Handicraft

Sitting—Fred Hutchinson, and Darrol Harrison. Standing—Barnell Powell, Don Hawkes, Mr. Keller, Cedric Evans, Lamont Lewis.



Science and handicraft club is composed of students wanting to learn more about the mysteries of science than they find in their textbooks. Under the able direction of Mr. Keller they have studied many informative subjects, as well as making many useful and educational wall plaques and other articles in handicraft.

Busily at work on their plaster wall plaques are Beverly Peart, Jerry Hawkes, and Diane Davis.

Arts and Crafts

Seated—Virginia Beck, Treasurer; Lola King, Advisor; Mary Ocheltree, Secretary. Standing—Roland Oaley, Vice-President; Ronald Spidell, President.

Poky's budding artists have been hard at work this year. Under the able direction of Miss Lola King, they have lent their talents to painting scenery for the operetta, making name cards for tournaments, and painting some outstanding pictures.

Mary Lou Ocheltree gives Stan Johnson's painting an admiring glance.

Cine Club

Whenever we get out of class to see a movie, we can always be sure that Cine Club has the situation well in hand and will keep us entertained while we learn by seeing.

Hard working officers of Cine Club include Patsey Anderson, treasurer; Rachel Galloway, secretary; Mr. Brown, adviser; Jack Anderson, president.

Pictured setting up the movie camera is Cleta Hammond.

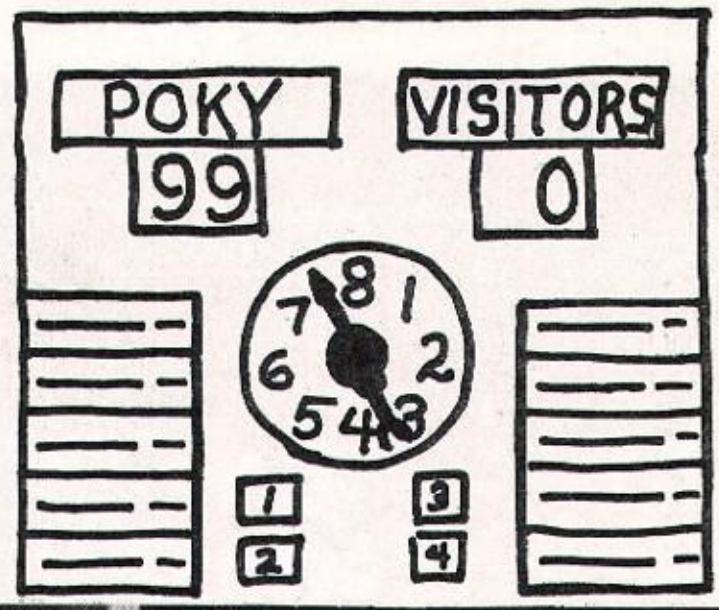
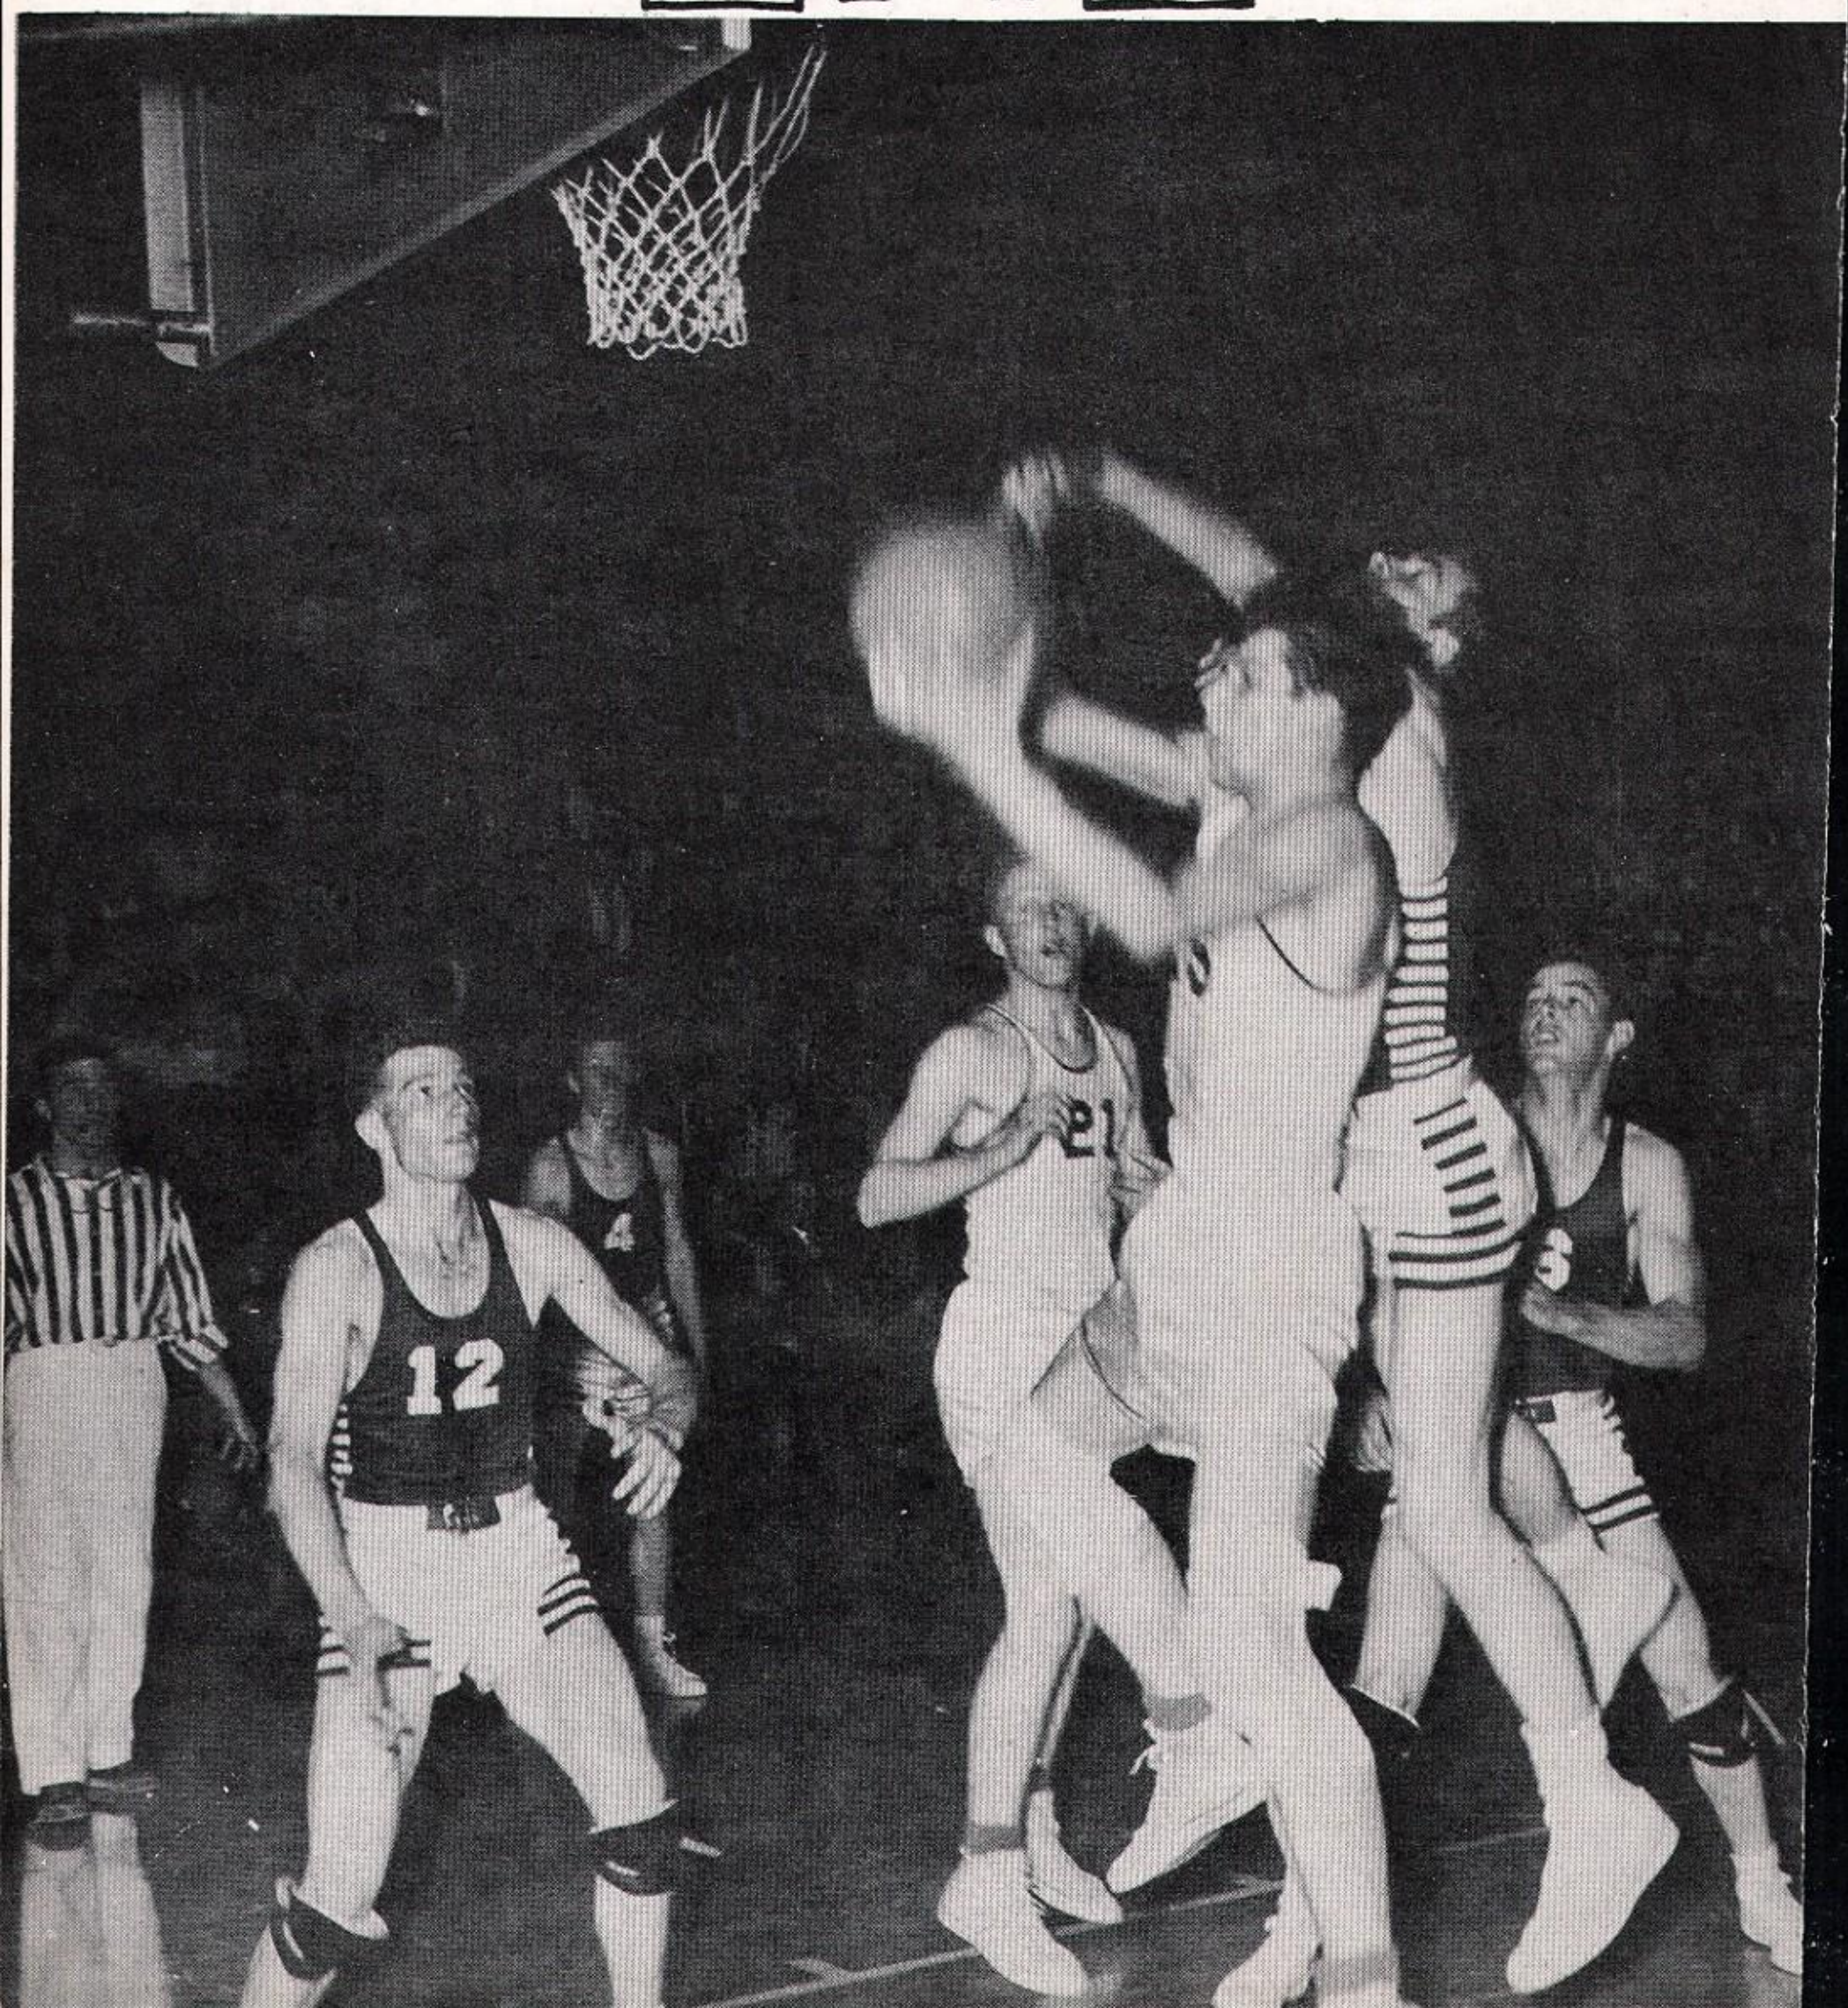
Hoop Artists





Varsity

Here we have the 1948-49 edition of Poky's varsity basketball team. After a slow start, the boys caught fire in the last part of the season, proving a worthy foe for some of the state's best teams. They continued their winning ways in the District Tournament, defeating Preston by one point in one of the most thrilling games of the season.

In the state tournament, they were up against very tough opposition in every game, but managed to do a creditable job, carrying through to the finals in the consolation bracket, where they lost to Lewiston, last year's state champion. Looking back at the season, our boys won their share of games, and put up a good fight in every contest.

Two of the main factors in the team's success, popular coach Jay Jensen and hard-working manager Dwaine Exeter.

Junior Cagers

Combining their talents to produce the enviable record of Poky's fighting Jayvee team were Coach "Chick" Atkinson and Manager Darold Hancock.

Back row—left to right—Lynn Holladay, Wayne Roberts, Gene Jacobsen, Jerry Chambers, Gary Smith, Bill Packer, Manager Darold Hancock.

Soph-Frosh

At right, Mike Mills, "Chick" Atkinson, and Jay Jensen, the three capable coaches, who led Poky's basketball teams through the season. They form one of the finest groups of hoop mentors in the state, and deserve much credit for the success of the sport at Poky High.

Poky's promising light heavy, Kenneth Kerr.

Above—Jackie Gray gives a demonstration of his crowd-pleasing tactics, using a rather unwilling Maind Dragon as a subject.

Handymen Dale Panopolos and Scott Monson served as the squad's managers.

Jaw Breakers

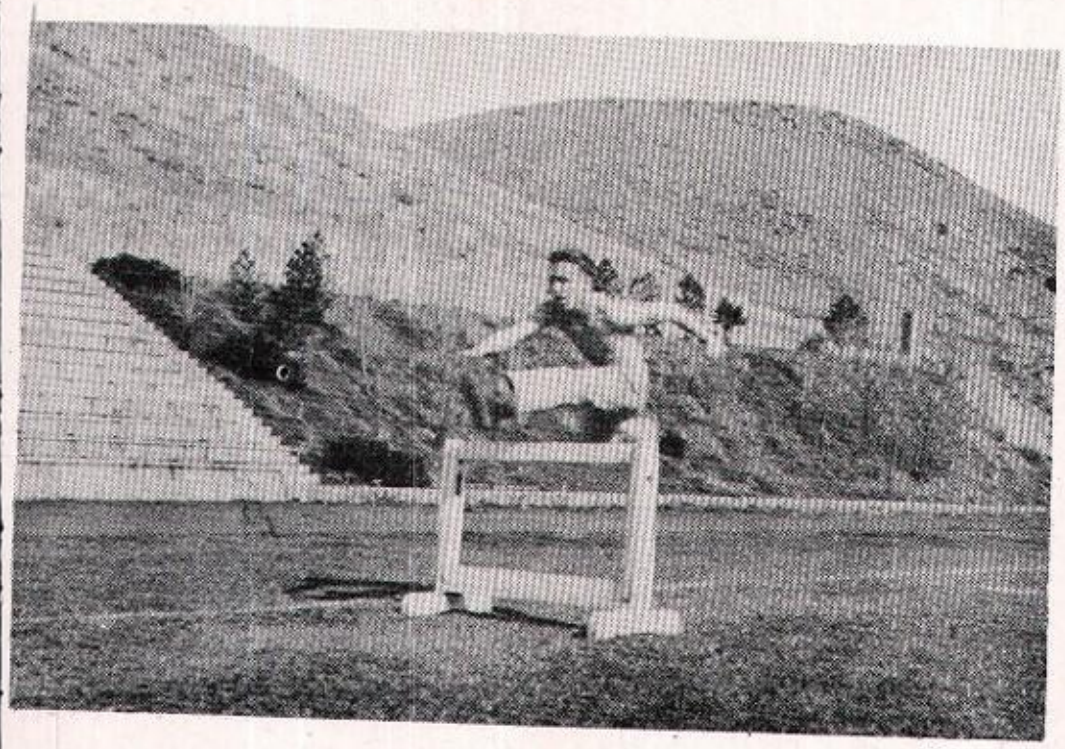
The Indian Boxing Squad, after completing an excellent season in which they won eight, tied one, and lost only one in dual competition, went on to further glory by winning the Fifth District Tournament, which saw seven of the squad emerge victorious with district honors.

Below-Chase Anderson, coach of Poky's boxing team, an all round swell guy and regarded by the boxers as one of the fellows.

Cinder Paths

A group of aspiring trackmen receive their instructions from Coach Mills prior to the day's workout.

Ray Allen, one of Poky's better prospects in the high jump, shows excellent pre-season form in sailing over the parallel bar.



Sure to give opponents of our track squad plenty of competition is hurdler Bob Dudley, shown here working out in his specialty.

You've been a wonderful student Doris.

In the preceeding school year it has seemed that we students of Poky High extended little gratitude to our faculty, but although we have not voiced our appreciation aloud it is felt deeply and sincerely by each of us.

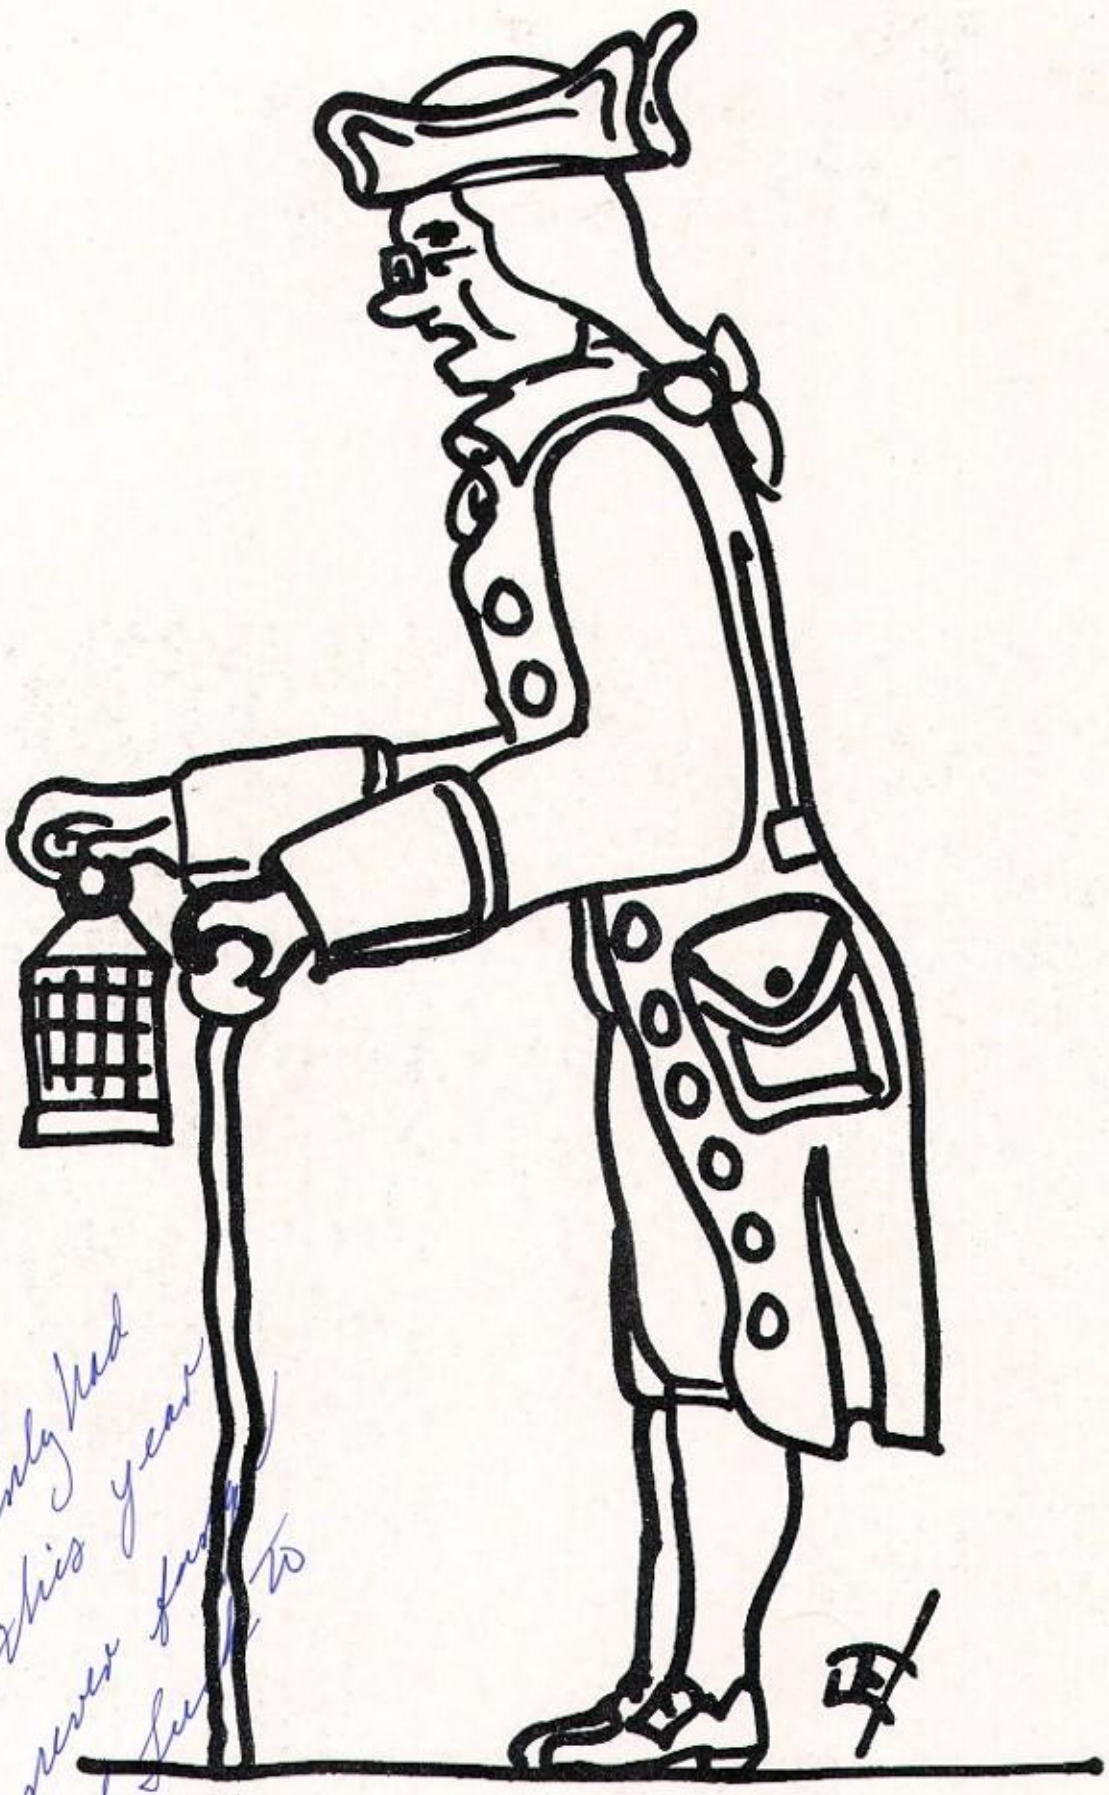
Nobody Except Poky's Fine Faculty

Outside club meetings and activities begin to get under way for them after school. Basketball and football games require the faculty's aid in collecting tickets, checking activity cards and maintaining order. Class assignments and tests must be checked and graded every night. Themes written by inexperienced authors are waded through by our patient superiors, who hope by means of their corrections to better our understanding of a subject. Yes, we readily accept this opportunity to thank our faculty for developing our intellectual abilities and also for advice they give when personal problems or difficulties chance to block our path of learning.

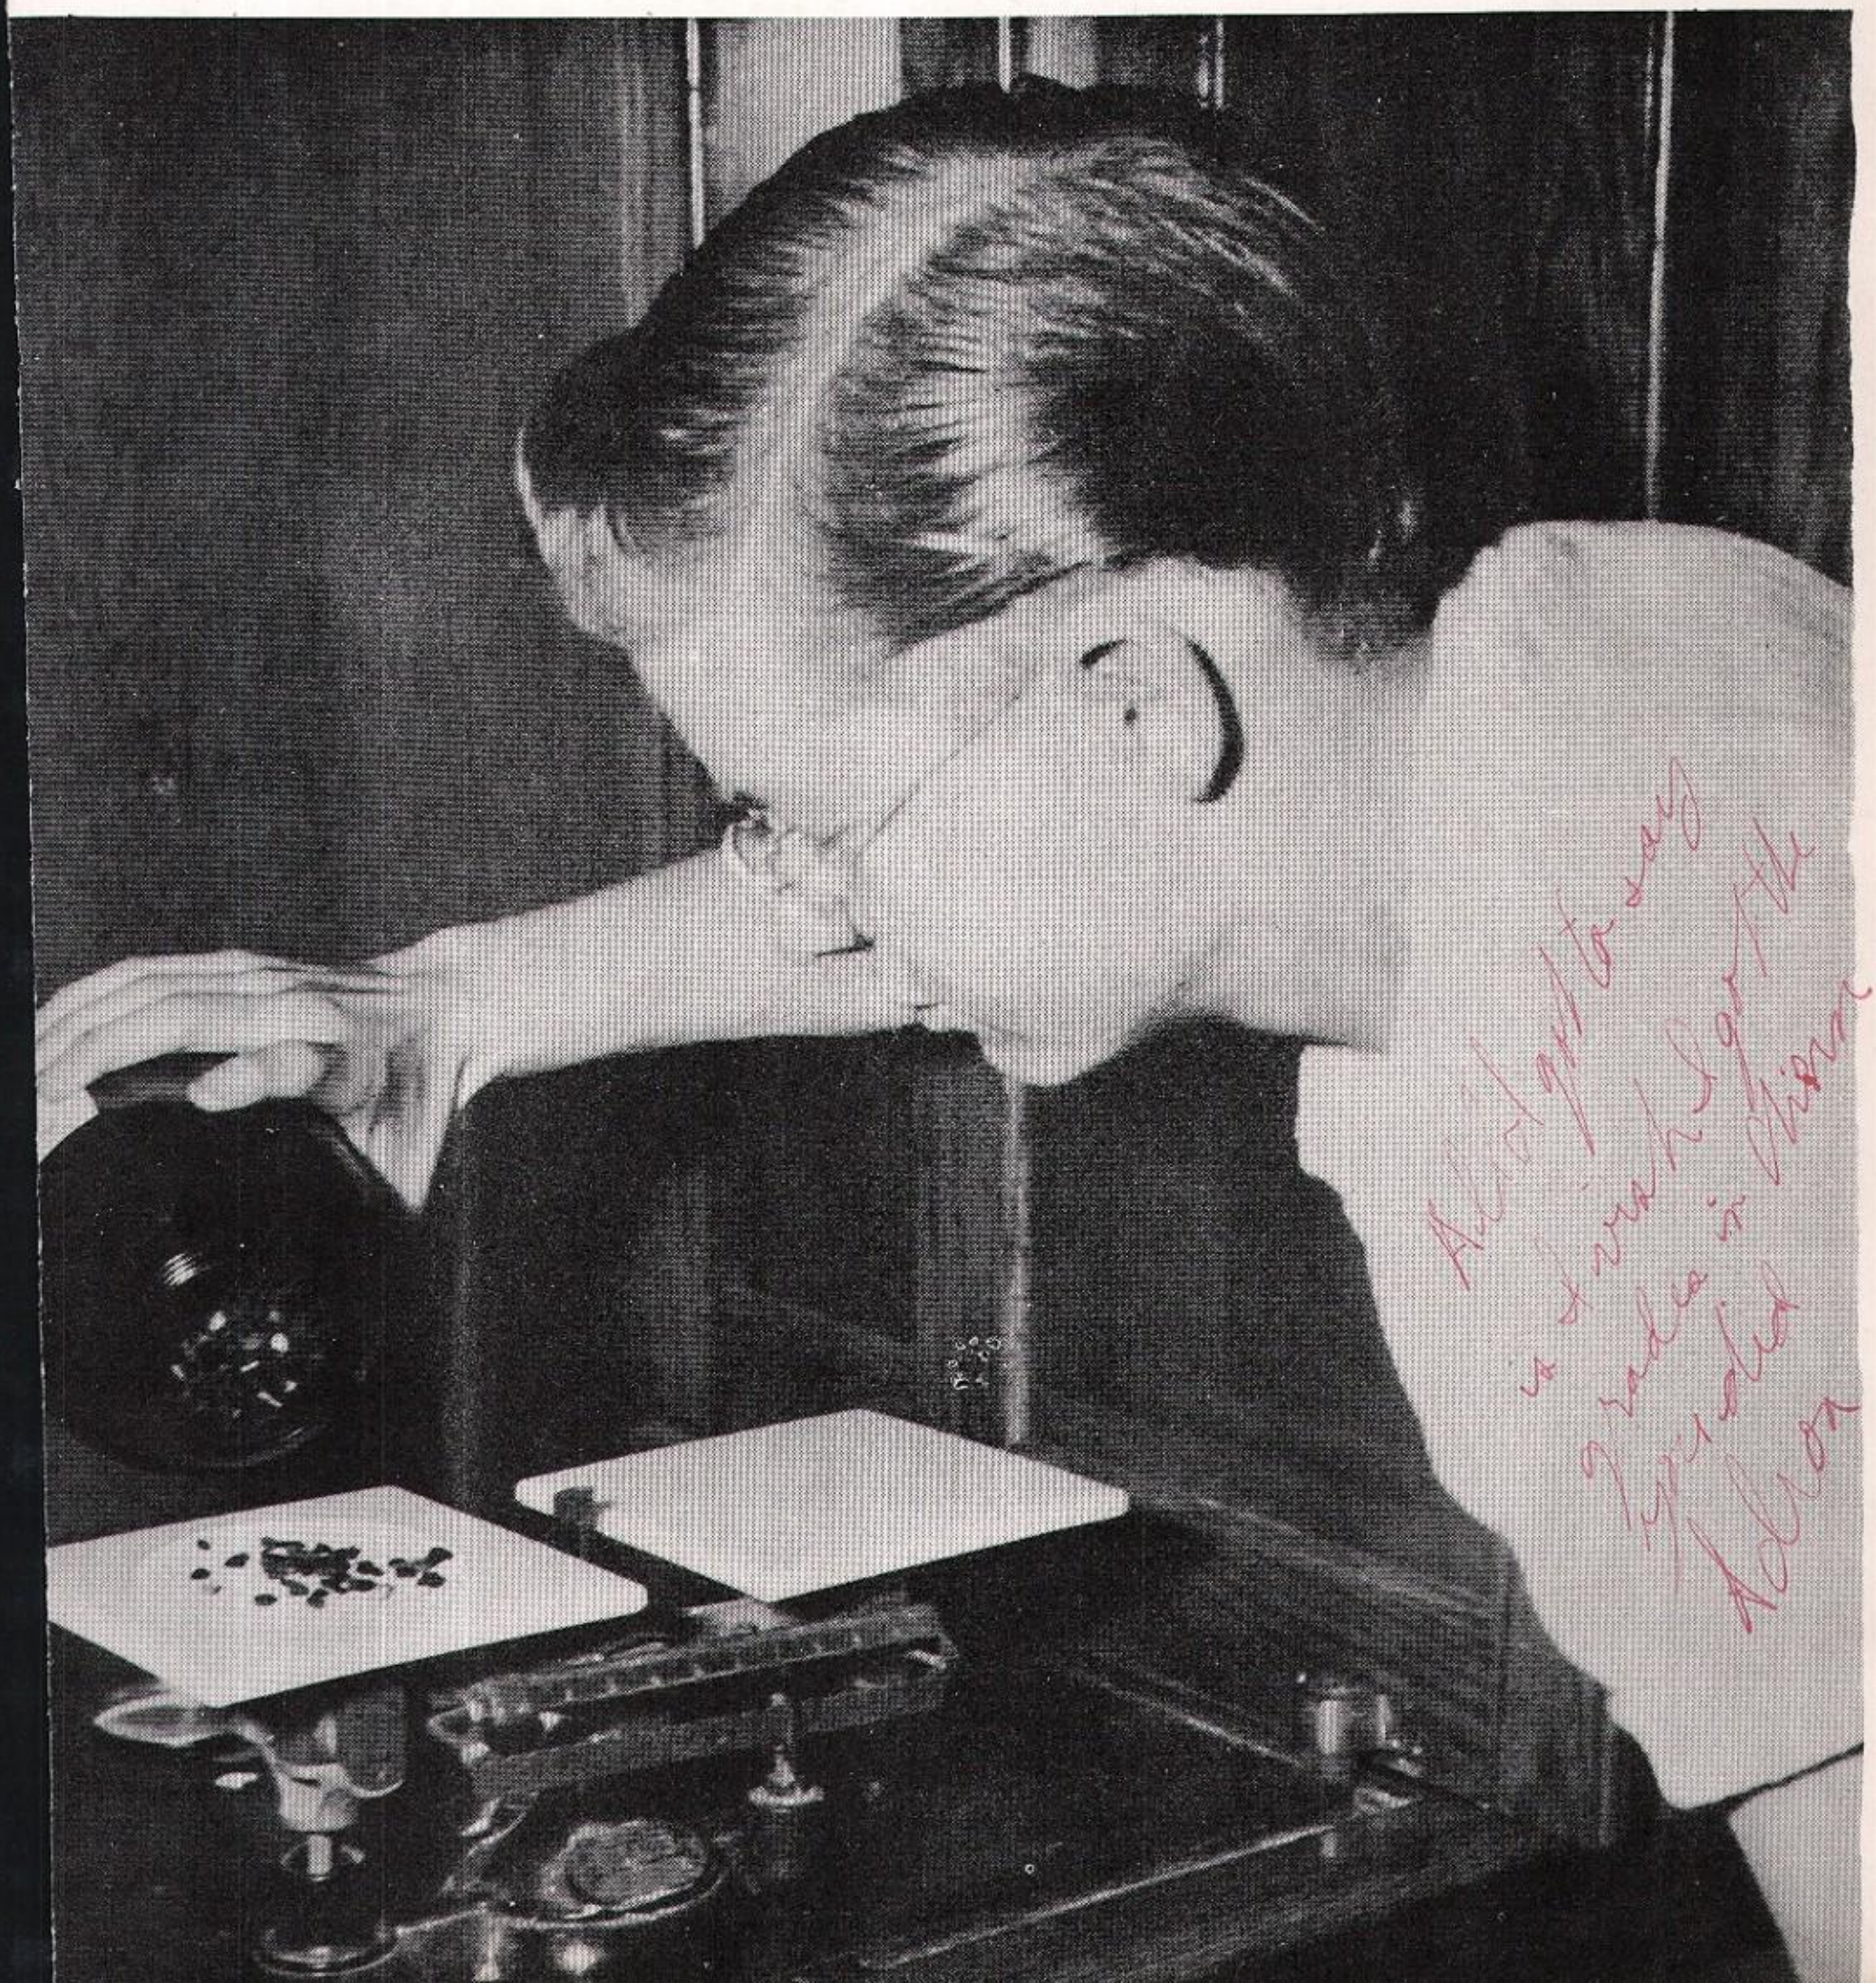


Hi Jones - We've certainly had lots of fun this year and I'll never forget it. Best of Luck to you. Roselle '55

Preamble

We, the students of the Pocatello High School, in order to establish a representative form of government, encourage good school citizenship, promote student and faculty cooperation and to assure for ourselves and for succeeding classes a responsibility for the welfare and good order of the school, do ordain and establish this constitution for the Senior High School of Pocatello, Idaho.

Therefore



Soph

Sophomore adviser, Mrs. Eileen Hurley, whose untiring efforts have brought the Sophomores through a most complete year.

Looking over the report of a recent meeting are the sophomore class officers, Jimmy Wise, president; Joyce Snyder, secretary; Lola Mae Smith; treasurer; and Joan Sebesta, vice-president.

These happy faces belong to the freshman officers, Steve Detmer, president; Alice Oelwein, vice-president; Diane Jones, secretary; and Ruth Yost, treasurer. Their smiles come naturally at the conclusion of a successful year.

Miss Mary Flynn, adviser whose encouragement and assistance has led the freshmen through the milestones of this year.

Freshman Goings-On

The first year at high school has come at last,
Our eight years at grade school finally had past,
We'd hoped and prayed for this time to come,
Now it was here, there was lots to be done.
We got off to a good start, this class of '52,
By electing our leaders, pert, smart, nifty, too.
These fine, upright freshmen, fine officers make,
By electing them, we made no mistake.
On November 12, our assembly we gave,
One so good, it made everyone rave.
It just goes to show what freshmen can do
When they've got what it takes and the ambition, too.
Our freshman class party we had that same night,
Enthusiasm for things was at its height.
Everyone had fun, and eats galore,
And we ate and ate 'till there was no more.
We realize now we were the ground floor of the heap,
But slowly and surely to the top we shall leap.
It's a long, long, distance from this lowly place,
Still someday we'll graduate, with frills and lace.
And as we march in our gowns, our hearts will be true—
To you, Poky High.
Signed,

Class of '52

Sophomore Busy-ness

This sophomore class is best of all,
Yes, we are really on the ball—
From 1947 'till 1951
Our four years at high school
Are really lots of fun.
At the first of the year,
We elected those to lead us,
Who were really fine students,
We talk to them and they heed us.
On November 19th,
We gave an annual show.
The assembly, "Winter Fantasie,"
Was acclaimed by "Ah!" and "Oh!"

We didn't have our class party
'Till way into the spring,
But still, our class party,
"To Thee We Sing,"
Was outstanding and unusual
As all our class affairs are,
We shall always remember it,
Though we go afar.
Our second year at Poky High
Truly was the apple of our eye.'
It was swell and full of fun,
But now we shall go on,
Class of '51.

From left to right are the able officers of the class of '50—Lynn Holladay, Donna Sue Stoll, Audrey Weese, and Richard Davis.

Juniors

THE JUNIOR CLASS

Ye olde juniors, the class of '50, started the school year off with a bang by electing as president, Lynn Holladay, assisted by the capable vice-president, secretary, and treasurer—Richard Davis, Audrey Weese, and Donna Sue Stoll, respectively, as their class leaders.

After the grand Shmoo Ball, came a most successful assembly. Much of the hidden talent of ye members was uncovered and the assembly was very well liked by all of the students.

We proudly supported the teams and yelled their way to victory. Having many members of ye class on every team, the juniors took a special interest in the outcome of the athletic events.

The climax of the year to ye class and ye school was the Junior Prom. How we all gazed upon the decorations and wished that that night would never end!

All in all, it was a superior year with all members of ye class pitching in and doing their part in making it so.

Mrs. Beryl Tallmadge confers with the junior senators, Gary Spidell, Bill Ryan, and Peggy Vickery.

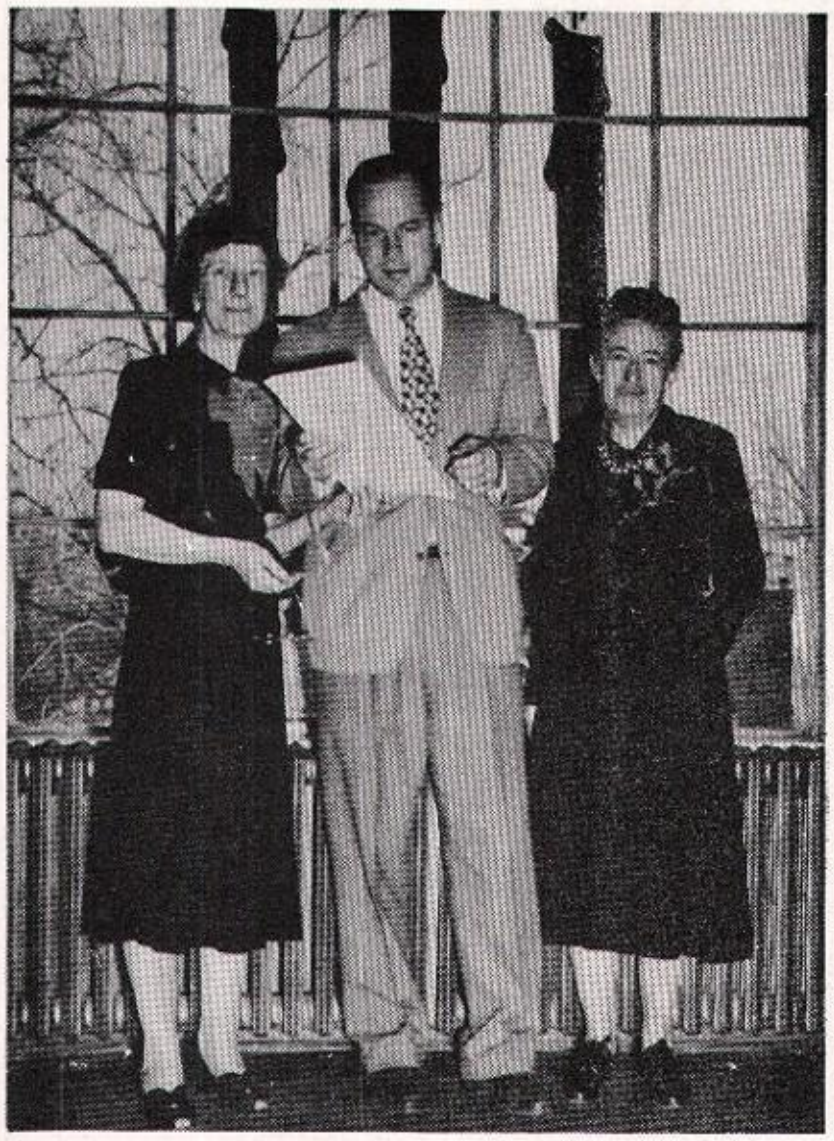
Chosen the queen and king of the Shmoo Hop were Donna Call and Edwin Perkins. Here they are showing the other shmoos the latest in shmoo-hopping.

1948—the year that the whole country went shmoo-struck. The junior class (shmoos to you) were no different from the rest. On November 5, 1948, the shmoos held their first annual Shmoo Hop in the Music Room. Here a welcoming committee greets the juniors.



Looking over the day's activities in senior home room are advisers, Mrs. Chute, Mr. Anderson, and Miss Hoffman. Under the guidance of these three, the class of '49 had an outstanding year.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

The town crier, in this month of May in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and forty-nine, does bid the good people of this institution of knowledge to give ear to the various activities and doings of our now departing senior class. Know ye that the several achievements of this body were capably directed by such luminaries as the class officers and advisers. Hearken now and forbear while the crier lives anew some moments of the pleasure did impart to the audience. And the Senior Ball, wherein much delight was afforded the gentlemen and ladies as they danced gayly with such an abundance of happy light-heartedness. And mark ye that this same class did adorn its members with rings at the beginning of the year. Let no listener forget the arduous moments and honest effort spent on the orations which spoke of our great Constitution. And the hardtimes—who shall lose remembrance of this festive event and the droll humors of its being? And most nostalgic of all, the glories and melancholies of graduation? For few of us indeed can secure a footing on the higher rung of the ladder without some sadness at the parting, without some thought of the warmth of many friendships, the sounds of many happy voices which may never again pass on our road. And so it is that this class, like your crier, must note that the hour is late and bid you good people, one and all, a cordial goodbye.

These four hard-working people were elected to lead the senior class during the year. They are Reed Jensen, president; Heber Hansen, vice-president; Leslie Dawson, secretary; and Arlene Burback.

Mrs. Chute lends a helping hand to four senior boys who had trouble drawing their maps.

Dear Doris,

Wasn't this been a swell year? I only hope that you've had a good a time as I have. Especially at the Co-ed, Ellen's party, the Coronation Ball, and etc. (you lucky girl!) I hope that will have this much fun again next year and that we will all be together as much as we were this year. You know that I already wish you the best of luck so I won't say that. All I can say is that I hope you'll be in my class again next year.

Love,
Irene Scott

Yours Truly

Dear Doris,

This year has been so much fun, hasn't it. Just think, we're seniors now, it seems rather hard to believe. Let's always be good friends.

Love,
